RANDALL, HALL & CO.

ESTABLISHED 1862

WHOLESALE CUTLERY

104 LAKE STREET.

Chicago, June 3" 1890.

Dear Mr. Hall.

Everything going on about the same at the Store, business perhaps a little better. all well at the Campbell Park.

The house is progressing I think, very satisfactorily the Contractors seem to be good men; the first payment was made to day ($7.700^{00}), which is all right as the building is under way more than that.

In regard to Centre Pieces, Corbals &c, do you want them? Mr Pedard says they are not used now. as they interfere with the Papering; this I think, is rubbish as they papered my Campbell Park House (also flats) all right & decorated the Centre Pieces; so as to look a good deal handsomer than any decorated paper around the Gas Fixe on a flat Ceiling would look; also Cornices; do you want them? Cornices Cost about 25^{cts} p^r foot; these are made by the plasterers. (molded on the wall); Mr Hall will have kept you posted on the general Progress of the building — She is a splendid superintendent; —

Write me & I will Carry out your views. & help.

Mrs Hall to any purchasing. which may be required.

Hope Grace is gaining strength
& that Mrs Hall Genl is well, also that
You are Enjoying yourself. —

My Flats are not rented yet.
No inquiry. = I have probably a dozen people on the look out for me

with best regards

Yours Sincerely

D Wilson
